REPORT ON Movements of well-known Bolsheviks.

Leonidoff and his satellites.

Made by D. C. Ropas. Forwarded by Director of Criminal Intelligence.

Sir,

I beg to report that Leonidoff and Gvosdareff Junior left Shanghai on the S. S. Meily for Vladivostok to-day.

The first-named (I have previously reported on this man) is the plenipotentiary of the Moscow Government and a member of the Central Propaganda Bureau of Soviet Russia (Organisation of "III International") and was in Shanghai for the purpose of supplying money and giving instructions to the various local Bolshevik organisations. His wife, Mrs. Leonidoff is still in Shanghai. Their last known address is 151, Avenue Dubail. The pair were in close touch with Dr. Fortoonatoff, chief of the local "Cheka" and with Morosoff, the president of the "Centrosoluse". The address of Fortoonatoff is ~~22~~ 606, Rue de l'Observatoire" and that off Morosoff, 624, Rue de l'Observatoire.

Leonidoff and Gvosdareff Junior were accompanied to the ship by Alexandroff, the captain of the S. S. Driver and a prominent Bolshevik, and Gvosdareff Senior who is known to be ~~amongst~~ an active member of the local Bolshevik propaganda organisation. Gvosdareff Senior was formerly a member of the military Intelligence Dept. at Vladivostok during the Rosanoff regime. This man speaks Chinese fluently and can write and read characters, and for this reason he is indispensable to his confreres. The attention of the Police must be drawn to this matter as he is undoubtedly a valuable medium between the local Russian and Chinese Bolshevik parties. the party on the jetty. Nicolaevsky is assistant to the Chief of the Bolshevik Intelligence Bureau formed here last year by Zagarsky for the special purpose of observing the affairs and feeling amongst the Russian influx to Shanghai. He has also been delegated to observe the most active anti-Bolshevik movements in Shanghai.
